

Enjoy the Outdoors This Fall (With Bacon)

Incorporate your favorite treat into your normal pumpkin spice latte routine!

Are you ready for the Bacon Bash?! On Saturday, October 8th, the third annual sizzling soir ee event hosted by Riverwalk Fort Lauderdale and Covenant House south Florida is going down.

In the spirit of the upcoming affair, we wrote this little post to get your mouth watering for all the savory fun that's about to come your way. Keep reading to learn more about fun ways to enjoy this fall outdoors with friends, family, and everybody's real BFF—bacon.

Bacon beer

There's nothing like sitting outside, sipping a cold, refreshing beer. And, of course, there's nothing like biting into a hot, juicy slice of bacon. Combining the two might just change your life forever. Tantalize your taste buds with this match made in heaven—a cool, frothy, and elegant beverage that will leave you wanting more.

Pumpkin bacon muffin

Sometimes, you want the taste of bacon and the taste of muffins in your mouth at the same time, and a free hand to reach for that steaming hot cup of coffee. The answer? The pumpkin-bacon muffin, a delicacy especially designed to combine meats and sweets for the perfect autumn treat.

BBQ with bacon-wrapped steaks, hotdogs, and burgers

There's nothing more American than steak, BBQ, or bacon. Combine the three, and a culinary masterpiece emerges—incomparable, indescribable, and perhaps the pinnacle of perfection. Whether it's a simple skirt steak or a fancy filet, any bacon-wrapped steak is sure to make your mouth water!

But don't forget hotdogs and burgers—when combined with bacon, these major players of American cuisine can also create a salty, scrumptious symphony that will delight even the most experienced palettes.

Bacon cinnamon rolls

The sweet spice of cinnamon and the hearty crunch of bacon make these the perfect companion for any meal (and good on their own, as well)! Whether it's a regular cinnamon roll with bacon bits in the frosting or a cinnamon roll made with a crunchy, bacon-y dough (or a masterpiece made with both), bacon-cinnamon rolls never fail to delight. Pair with a side of bacon-chocolate mousse and maybe some bacon wine (yes, that exists) for a meal that won't soon be forgotten.

For another delicious way to enjoy bacon in the fall, head to Esplanade Park in Fort Lauderdale from 1-5 p.m. on October 8 for the Bacon Bash. This free-admission event will feature mouthwatering bacon bites of all shapes and sizes! You can even vote for your favorite treat!

For bacon-loving folks 21 and over, a VIP section will be offered, featuring 10 drink samples, bacon bites dishes, and more. VIP section is limited to a certain number of people so get tickets now act fast!

The Bacon Bash is a delicious event for all. Come one; come all for great food and drink, music, games for the entire family, and more! Don't miss out on the fantastic fun.
